

American Poultry Association

Judging of new breeds/varieties:

Qualifying meets will have a committee discuss and place the meet. The committee will consist of at least two judges with at least one being from the Standard of Perfection committee. Those individuals discussing and placing the birds at the qualifying meet shall follow all APA rules, regulations, and the APA Standard of Perfection. In addition, the Standard brought forth by the sponsors of the qualifying meet shall be applied.